19. COOLING-OFF PERIOD

Please refer to the Prospectus and Supplementary Prospectus (if any) or Information Memorandum for more information.

20. UNIT TRUST LOAN FINANCING RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Investing in a Unit Trust Fund with Borrowed Monies More Risky than Investing with Your Own Savings.

You should assess if loan financing is suitable for you in light of your objectives, attitude to risk and financial circumstances. You should be aware of the risks, which would include the following:

- The higher the margin of financing (that is, the amount of money you borrow for every ringgit of your own money which you put in as deposit or down payment), the greater the loss or gain on your investment.
- You should assess whether you have the ability to service the repayments on the proposed loan. If your loan is a variable rate loan, and if interest rates rise, your total repayment amount will be increased.
- If unit prices fall beyond a certain level, you may be asked to provide additional acceptable collateral (where units are used as collateral) or pay additional amounts on top of your normal instalments. If you fail to comply within the time prescribed, your units may be sold towards the settlement of your loan.
- Returns on unit trusts are not guaranteed and may not be earned evenly over time. This means that there may be some years where returns are high and other years where losses are experienced. Whether you eventually realise a gain or loss may be affected by the timing of the sale of your units. The value of units may fall just when you want your money back even though the investment may have done well in the past.

This brief statement cannot disclose all the risks and other aspects of loan financing. You should therefore carefully study the terms and conditions before you decide to take a loan. If you are in doubt about any aspect of this risk disclosure statement or the terms of the loan financing, you should consult the institution offering the loan.

21. INFORMATION OF INDIVIDUAL SELF-CERTIFICATION FOR FATCA (Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act) AND CRS (Common Reporting Standard)

Regulations based on Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act ("FATCA") and Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development ("OECD") Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") require financial institutions to collect and report certain required information based on an individual account holder's or controlling person of an entity account holder's tax residence. Each jurisdiction has its own rules for defining tax residence. In general, tax residence is the country in which you live. Special circumstances (such as studying abroad, working overseas, or extended travel) may cause you to be resident elsewhere or resident in more than one country at the same time (multiple residencies). The country/countries in which you pay income tax are likely to be your country/countries of tax residence. For more information on tax residence, please consult your tax adviser or the information at the following link for FATCA and CRS at <https://www.irs.gov/> and <http://www.oecd.org/tax/automatic-exchange/crs-implementation-and-assistance/> respectively.

If your tax residence (or the account holder, if you are completing the form on their behalf) is located outside of the country in which this account is maintained, we may be legally obliged to pass on the information in this form and other financial information with respect to your financial accounts to the tax authorities in the country where the financial institution is located.

As a financial institution, we are not allowed to give tax or legal advice.

If you have any questions about this form, these instructions, or defining your tax residency status, please speak to your tax adviser or domestic tax authority.
